

Downtown Berkeley, 1909

Berkeley Historical Society
Speakers Series

Philip Gale Presents

Berkeley's Vanished Horse Cars,
Steam Trains and Street Cars

Sunday, February 17, 2013**
From 2:00 pm to 4:00 pm

The History Center
1931 Center Street, Berkeley, CA
Phone: 501-848-0181

Phil Gale will give an illustrated talk on the history of Berkeley's public transit from the first horse car and steam trains through the Key System's Street Cars and the Southern Pacific "red trains" until the founding of the AC Transit in 1960.

Phil Gale is one of the co-curators of the current Exhibit - Vanished. He curated an earlier exhibit on the "History of Early Berkeley Transportation". He is a member of the East Bay Model Engineers and the Western Railroad Museum.

**Please note the correct date. The wrong date was printed in a recent BHS Newsletter flyer.

For information about the Berkeley Historical Society, follow us on Facebook or on our Website: www.BerkeleyHistoricalSociety.org