

BERKELEY HISTORICAL SOCIETY

SPRING 2018 WALKING TOURS

Saturday, April 7: West Berkeley Artisans & Industries. Led by Jana Olson.

A walking tour showing examples of artisans and industries operating in Southwest Berkeley between Dwight Way and Ashby Avenue.

Saturday, April 14: The Berkeley Drinks District. Led by Robert Johnson.

Numerous breweries, wineries and gallerias have sprung up in a historic industrial area near Gilman Street in West Berkeley. We will explore some of these new enterprises as well as hear about the historic industries, some of which are still going. Modern construction and a new farm give further vitality to the area.

Saturday, May 5: 31 Houses and Their History. Led by Barbara Tapp.

See this area in Ocean View from an artist's eye. Visit locations painted by the guide and observe the history, architecture and changes that have taken place over the years.

Saturday, May 19: Berkeley Square. Led by Charles Wilson and John Aronovici.

Secrets of the attempted move of the state capital, The Circle, The Tunnel and Marin Avenue. Walking on paved streets, some hills.

Saturday, June 2: The Arrival of the University. Led by Steven Finacom.

A hundred fifty years ago, the State of California chartered the University of California. In 1873 the University formally moved to the Berkeley campus, which had been conceived in the 1860s by the private College of California. Although almost no structures remain from that early era in east Berkeley, there are many other physical remnants and reminders of the origins and early years of the campus. Our guide worked for three decades in the University planning offices, and is a past president of BHS. Walk is mainly on paved paths and sidewalks, some of them steep.
